

CiteProof Verification Record

Document: A brief whose citations check out
Run: 2026-10-08T01:36:42+00:00 · UTC
Record ID: 8d2e0396c20c · Tool version: 1.1.0
Public-record snapshot: fixture-corpus (not the live public corpus)

2 citations found, 1 quote found

Sanity-check these counts before relying on the results below: a brief with fewer citations than expected was only partly read.

Coverage note. Sample record rendered from the public clean-brief demo.

Verified: 2 Needs attention: 0 Couldn't check: 0

Method

Citations were extracted from the submitted document, resolved against public court records (and the U.S. Code on GovInfo for federal statute sections), compared against the case name, court and year the document claims, and any quoted passage was matched against the text of every opinion in the cited case.

Verified (2)

Status	Citation as written	Finding
[VERIFIED]	Id. Resolved to: Miccosukee Tribe of Indians v. United States	Case name and year match the cited case. Pinned to 1245. No quoted passage attached: existence and case identity only. Still good law? We don't decide that — check what has cited this case since: • Opinions citing this case (Google Scholar) • Citing opinions (CourtListener) Lexis/Westlaw subscribers: Shepardize or KeyCite this citation there. No free search replaces that check.
[VERIFIED]	Miccosukee Tribe Indians v. United States, 516 F.3d 1235, 1244 (ca11 2008) Resolved to: Miccosukee Tribe of Indians v. United States	Case name and year match the cited case. Pinned to 1244. Quote as written [N]on-exempt portions of a document must be disclosed unless they are inextricably intertwined with exempt portions. Closest passage in the opinion match confidence: high [N]on-exempt portions of a document must be disclosed unless they are inextricably intertwined with exempt portions. Still good law? We don't decide that — check what has cited this case since: • Opinions citing this case (Google Scholar) • Citing opinions (CourtListener)

Status	Citation as written	Finding
		Lexis/Westlaw subscribers: Shepardize or KeyCite this citation there. No free search replaces that check.

Table of Authorities (1)

Every citation below verified against the public record in this check. 1 citation(s) omitted — unverified, or short-form references listed under their full cite. See above.

1. Miccosukee Tribe Indians v. United States, 516 F.3d 1235, 1244 (ca11 2008)

Limits of this record. This record verifies citation existence and quote accuracy against public court records. It does not verify that cited authority supports the proposition for which it is cited, nor whether the authority remains good law. It does not detect all possible citation errors. Attorney review required under Rule 11.